

From the Cross,
He extends His hand to us;
when we take it,
we discover an enduring,
unrelenting truth:
He will never let us go.

A Cast of Light - the story of the ICPE Mission

Trust is born from the friendship into which God invites us – a deepening bond
grounded in the unmistakable evidence of who He is:
a God of relentless love,
mercy, and grace.

Gratitude sharpens our sensitivity to the gifts of God around us and the beauty and goodness of the world.
Gratitude becomes the wellspring of our joy.

There is infinite variety and creativity in the missionary vocation.
There is no limit to how Christ may be brought to the world – no contribution too small, none too mundane.
